emails & Friday

Wednesday, April 10, 2002 12:24 AM

From: "Matt O'Malley" <motoski@yahoo.com>
To: "Jebb Dykstra" <jebb@techsectorlaw.com>

Jebb,

I unfortunately did not get a chance to create those e-mails before we left - hopefully, by Thursday. My other appointment is 1 - 3pm on Friday, so please let me know if we can work before or after that.

Jebb,

It is after 10 pm, I am still at the office and I probably will be for quite a while. Sorry, I didn't get my e-mail out regarding Maher. I just checked my messages and heard your phone call from earlier, thanks. Yes, hopefully between the two of us, we can put something together.

Agreement

Tuesday, May 28, 2002 3:34 AM

From: "Matt O'Malley" <mtoski@yahoo.com>
To: "M Hawash" <mhawash@attbi.com>

Maher,

Too many things to do this weekend and some pc hassle to boot. I am about 80% done on the changes to the Agreement and I hope to finish it soon. I still haven't tried buring a copy of AI yet or putting together the list of MP3 OEMs, hopefully that will be soon as well. I am sending this e-mail from my notebook, because I was having problems with the cable modem.

Brian,

I am up in San Jose, so it may need to be next week before I can get a hold of some day trader friends of mine. The one brokerage house that I was referring to last Saturday, is called Andover. They have an office in Westwood (which I have not been to) and one near my home in Encino. As we talked about, these types of facilities usually have high-end systems with dual monitors - that basically sit idle after 1 pm everyday - including the weekends. So its probably worth a little investigating. I won't be back by this Saturday, but lets talk next week or the next Saturday.

Good luck,
Matt O'Malley

Either we can use LA based talent (A2K) or have them do it remotely (ie. Vox Talent out of Canada at the very bottom of this email). See Excel spreadsheet for names with "x" as possibilities (2 worksheets inside the excel attachment)

The next two links below are both for Agency 2000 (A2K) which is listed as a non-union voice over source in Los Angeles. One is a third party link and the other is their direct link, but the names on the 2 lists are very different.

Matt -

Looks good! A couple of comments:

- Case: supporting "slide-in" templates for custom branding
- Regarding numeric keypad: we should also get pricing on using slide-in templates here, so that the keys can be easily and cost-effectively customized for different customers
- Regarding the speaker - do we want polyphonic sound (like Wayne's cell phone)? I'm guessing it's not necessary...

Maher,

Please look over my rough attempt at our hardware specs and fill in what's missing. I would like to send something off today, if possible (we can always amend it later). Also please run this by your friend. Ideally we would get individual component pricing and not a lumped sum. thanks

TelAbout / Lunch?

To: "Tim Sanders" <tim@thefinalmle.net>

Dear Mr. Sanders,

We meet briefly after your session yesterday – which I enjoyed. I mentioned that we are looking to negotiate rooftop agreements in some larger cities. I was curious if your schedule would allow meeting today, either during the lunch break (lunch at 12:35 pm, next door at the Westin hotel) or this evening after the exhibits around 6:15 pm? (I already have a 5-6 pm meeting).

If these times are not good, perhaps we could talk by phone or emails next week – unfortunately/fortunately, we are rather heavily booked with appointments the rest of today and tomorrow. It's probably easier to leave a message on my cel phone - verses scheduling via email.

Hi Caron.Just for the record, I took your mother into Baraboo Hospital last night around 8:00 PM. At first they thought that they might send her home yet last night after giving her IV and after taking x-rays. But the Dr saw her legs and thought they would keep her to see what can be done with the infection. She is in room 3382 and telephone is 355-1778. Eber

Exhibit D Key
Reg. Inventor: OMalley
US App 10538698

Exhibit D

is a grid listing every email and/or document in Exhibit C and how it was relevant towards the due diligence.

Color Key

Enlarged explanation of color key and relevance briefly explained

	Yellow refers to key emails relevant to invention (referred to as TelAbout or code name Wallless) for R&D, product demo, Investors, Legal, Events, or Meetings
	Pink refers to emails, attachments, and/or documents relevant to the product demo
	Blue refers to emails relevant to other work and family (mother &/passed away) obligations
	Green helps divide up key columns per subjects of: R&D, Engineering, Investors, Legal, Events & M&Is

Exhibit D Key

Reg.Inventor:OMalley
US App 10538698

For example, using the total numbers listed in the 1st column to the right and that also appears at the top of the Exhibit D screenshot below, there are "64" emails and/or documents that mention "research and development" of the invention progress.

Note that several of the emails and/or documents contain materials relevant to more than one listed subject column (e.g. "research & development" and say, "engineer search") where a "1" is then marked in each column in the row (see below).

Column Key

Enlarged explanation of column key and count

	Invention Progress	Emails and/or documents that reference efforts relevant towards
84	Research & Development	Product/invention development and/or marketing research
61	Engineer/product design search	Searching for engineering talent / communications / engineer work / product design
19	Investor/search	Searching for potential investors
42	Legal/IP/Attorney search	Searching for legal expertise / communications / IP work
14	Events	Attending or planning to attend events (e.g. trade shows, conferences, etc.)
15	Meetings	Attending or planning to attend meetings (e.g. with engineers, attorneys, VCs, etc.)
	Other Requirements/delays	Emails and/or documents that reference efforts relevant towards
14	Other Work/Responsibilities	my work projects and responsibilities for my livelihood/income
3	Family health/Other issues	family health and other issues (e.g. mother in hospital and attorney passed away)
23	Other people's delays/setbacks	delays and setbacks due to other's lack of availability
38	Attachments	These are Word documents, Excel Spreadsheet, PowerPoint presentations, etc.
